

Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act (ACA)

Discrimination is Against the Law

The Tri-County Office on Aging complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Tri-County Office on Aging does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

The Tri-County Office on Aging:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Saray Moreno, Human Resources Manager.

If you believe that the Tri-County Office on Aging has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
